

Student's Name	Teacher / Counselor	Date	Case #
----------------	---------------------	------	--------

Student Development Matrix

	School Assessment		Program Assessment				Assessment Key
	Starting	Ending	2	3	4	5
Relationships with friends & adults							5 - Thriving 4 - Safe/Self-Sufficient 3 - Stable 2 - At Risk 1 - In Crisis
Sense of fair play/cooperation
Leadership Skills
Teamwork
Ability to follow directions
Makes wise decisions							2) 4)
Study Skills							3) 5)

Description of Key Terms

Thriving

- Consistently respects others' opinions and is able to express their beliefs in a non-confrontational manner.
- Shows compassion and concern for others.
- Demonstrates and models good organizational skills. Serves as a positive role model for peers.
- Consistently works well with others.
- Consistently follows directions and listens.
- Makes wise decisions.
- Completes tasks in a timely & orderly fashion.

Safe / Self-Sufficient

- Respectfully listens to others' opinions.
- Understands and respects the rights of others.
- Recognizes and is influenced by positive role models.
- Works well with others in most situations.
- Understands directions and complies.
- Makes safe decisions.
- Needs little direction to complete tasks in timely orderly fashion.

Stable

- Expresses own opinions but may have difficulty listening to opinions of others.
- Understands their right to make choices.
- Recognizes healthy leadership but displays no interest in taking leadership.
- Works well with others in certain situations.
- Cooperates but may not always understand directions.
- Seeks others' advice in making decisions.
- Displays interest in completing tasks.

At-Risk

- Shows inappropriate responses to others' opinions.
- Shows little compassion and concern for others.
- Strongly influenced by peers' decisions.
- Works with others but requires supervision.
- Exhibits attitude and requires monitoring.
- Sometimes intimidates others.
- Shows little pride in completed tasks.

In Crisis

- Shows a total disregard for others' opinions and usually resorts to physical violence.
- Isolated and withdrawn.
- Makes decisions with total disregard for others.
- Is unable to work with others.
- Refuses to listen.
- Frequently intimidates others; is viewed as a "bully."
- Refuses to complete tasks.